Key objectives

The strategy aims to generate medium-term positive returns, through investing in a range of investment strategies that have potential to generate positive returns, irrespective of market conditions. The portfolio will aim to operate with a lower risk than more traditional approaches to portfolio management, which tend to be largely dependent on the performance of equity markets.

Investment manager's comment

	Looking Back: The strategy delivered a total return of -0.1% which was just behind the ARC £ Cautious PCI benchmark return of 0.1%.
	Best Performing Holding: Fidelity Index UK Index Fund, which returned 5.4% in the quarter. This reflected the strong performance of the UK market. UK equities were boosted both by the success of the UK's vaccination programme and the new $1.9trn US fiscal stimulus. The announcement of the latter led global investors to further rotate into value-orientated sectors, which are likely to be the main beneficiaries of increased inflation, and which are strongly represented in the UK.
	Worst Performing Holding: Baillie Gifford Investment Grade Long Bond Fund, which returned -7.9% in the quarter. Forecasts for both economic growth and inflation rose during the quarter and this led investors to anticipate an earlier than expected tightening in monetary policy, especially in the US. As a result, bond prices, in general, fell and the hardest impact was felt at the long end of the yield curve where this fund predominantly invests.
	Portfolio Changes: There were no changes in the quarter.
	Looking Ahead: In a period of considerable market uncertainty, the performance was slightly behind the benchmark. However, we believe it is important to look through quarterly movements, positive or negative, and focus on the portfolio's long-term objectives. We believe that, on that basis, the portfolio is well placed to deliver an attractive long-term total return, with an emphasis on capital growth, within a cautious risk profile.

Key objectives

This strategy is focused towards providing long-term growth from a globally diversified stockmarket focused portfolio. This will be primarily made up of index tracking 'passive' funds, with a strict limit on exposure to active funds capped at 20%, as minimising charges is of paramount importance. The mix of funds will be actively managed based on the Whitechurch investment team views.

Investment manager's comment

	Looking Back: The strategy delivered a total return of 3.9% which was ahead of the ARC £ Equity Risk PCI benchmark return of 2.9%.
	Best Performing Holding: Vanguard Global Small-Cap Index Fund, which returned 8.4% in the quarter. Small cap stocks outperformed their larger peer group as the launch of vaccination programmes and the announcement of a huge US fiscal stimulus raised expectations for a strong global economic recovery. The latter is likely to benefit smaller companies disproportionately on account of their greater operational and financial leverage, as compared to larger companies.
	Worst Performing Holding: L&G Global Inflation Linked Bond Index Fund, which returned -1.0% in the quarter. Whilst the break-even inflation rates of many index linked bonds moved higher, the benefit of this was more than offset by the selloff in the conventional bond market, as investors started to price in an earlier than expected rise in interest rates particularly in the US.
	Portfolio Changes: There were no changes in the quarter.
	Looking Ahead: In a period of continuing volatility, the performance was ahead of the benchmark. However, we believe it is important to look through quarterly movements, positive or negative, and focus on the portfolio's long-term objectives. We believe that, on that basis, the portfolio is well placed to provide an attractive long-term total return, through a blend of passive and active investment strategies, within a higher risk profile.

Investment manager's comment

	Looking Back: The strategy delivered a total return of 2.4% which was ahead of the ARC £ Steady Growth PCI benchmark return of 2.1%.
	Best Performing Holding: Vanguard FTSE UK Equity Income Index Fund, which returned 6.1% in the quarter. This reflected the strong performance of the UK market. UK equities were boosted both by the success of the UK's vaccination rollout and the new $1.9trn US fiscal stimulus. The announcement of the latter led global investors to further rotate into value-orientated sectors, which are likely to be the main beneficiaries of increased inflation, and which are strongly represented in the UK.
	Worst Performing Holding: Baillie Gifford Investment Grade Long Bond Fund, which returned -7.9% in the quarter. Forecasts for both economic growth and inflation rose during the quarter and this led investors to anticipate an earlier than expected tightening in monetary policy, especially in the US. As a result, bond prices, in general, fell and the hardest impact was felt at the long end of the yield curve where this fund predominantly invests.
	Portfolio Changes: There were no changes in the quarter.
	Looking Ahead :In a period of continuing volatility, the performance was ahead of the benchmark. However, we believe it is important to look through quarterly movements, positive or negative, and focus on the portfolio's long-term objectives. We believe that, on that basis, the portfolio is well placed to provide an attractive long-term total return, through a blend of passive and active investment strategies, within an above average risk profile.

Key objectives

This is a specialist investment strategy aimed at producing long-term growth through investment in a number of key themes that we believe will be key economic drivers for the 21st century. Major themes include investing in companies exploiting the opportunities within Emerging economic areas, technological disruption, demographic changes and those providing solutions to global issues such as climate change. The asset allocation will be managed geographically and by investment themes.

Investment manager's comment

	Looking Back: The strategy delivered a total return of 1.7% which was behind the ARC £ Equity Risk PCI benchmark return of 2.9%.
	Best Performing Holding: Hermes Asia ex-Japan Equity Fund, which returned 13.0% in the quarter. The performance was significantly ahead of the fund's benchmark index. This was primarily due to strong stock selection in China, Korea, Taiwan and India. The top contributing stock was Kumho Petrochemical, a synthetic rubber producer, which rose sharply on expectations of a strong quarter driven by a surge in demand for rubber glove products.
	Worst Performing Holding: VT Gravis Clean Energy Fund, which returned -3.7% in the quarter. This partly reflected 'market rotation' whereby positive news on vaccinations and the US fiscal stimulus led some investors to seek more cyclical investment opportunities which sit outside of the sector. As a result, the share prices of clean energy companies fell during the quarter. The impact was particularly severe in North America where valuations have increased the most in recent years.
	Portfolio Changes: There were no changes in the quarter.
	Looking Ahead: In a period of continuing volatility, the performance was behind the benchmark. However, we believe it is important to look through quarterly movements, positive or negative, and focus on the portfolio's long-term objectives. We believe that, on that basis, the portfolio is well placed to deliver an attractive long-term total return, with an emphasis on capital growth, within a higher risk profile.

Investment manager's comment

	Looking Back: The strategy delivered a total return of 1.4% which was ahead of the ARC £ Balanced Asset PCI benchmark return of 1.1%.
	Best Performing Holding: Schroder UK-listed Equity Income Maximiser Fund, which returned 5.4% in the quarter. ### Key objectives

This strategy will seek above average long-term capital growth from a well diversified portfolio of stockmarket investments. The strategy will provide a core exposure to the UK stockmarket together with a mix of the best opportunities offered by funds exposed to overseas markets.

Investment manager's comment

	Looking Back: The strategy delivered a total return of 2.4% which was behind the ARC £ Equity Risk PCI benchmark return of 2.9%.
	Best performing holding: Hermes Asia ex-Japan Equity Fund, which returned 13.0% in the quarter. The performance was significantly ahead of the fund's benchmark index. This was primarily due to strong stock selection in China, Korea, Taiwan and India. The top contributing stock was Kumho Petrochemical, a synthetic rubber producer, which rose sharply on expectations of a strong quarter driven by a surge in demand for rubber glove products.
	Worst Performing Holding: Ninety One Global Environment Fund, which returned -3.5% in the quarter. This mainly reflected 'market rotation' whereby positive news on vaccinations and the US fiscal stimulus led some investors to seek more cyclical investment opportunities which are often in more carbon intensive sectors. It should be remembered that this rotation follows very strong performance from 'greener' sectors of the market in recent years.
	Portfolio Changes: There were no changes in the quarter.
	Looking Ahead: In a period of considerable market uncertainty, the performance was behind the benchmark. However, we believe it is important to look through quarterly movements, positive or negative, and focus on the portfolio's long-term objectives. We believe that, on that basis, the portfolio is well placed to deliver an attractive long-term total return, with an emphasis on capital growth, within a higher risk profile.

Risk Profile 7/10 – High Risk

This is a higher risk strategy that can invest up to 100% of monies into stockmarket investments. Consequently, investors must accept that it may experience material fluctuations and losses of capital do occur over certain time periods. In this strategy there may be additional risks such as stock specific risk from direct equity exposure and currency fluctuations via investment in overseas markets. Investors accept a higher level of risk with a view to potentially receiving higher returns over the long term.
